

Below ground baseplates :

All posts are supplied with a below ground baseplate together with a plastic post cap for a professional finish and to prevent water ingress. Baseplates prevent rotation or removal of the post once the concrete foundation has cured.